THE BUILDING OF THE WORLD OF TOMORROW

The 1939 Baconian revolves around the theme of the New York World's Fair, namely, "The Building of the World of Tomorrow."

In 1935 President Roosevelt declared that he had found "one-third of the nation ill-housed, ill-clad, and ill-nourished." It was then proposed that the next World's Fair should show its visitors that America holds, within her realms, quantities of resources for the happiness and betterment of all people. It was also decided that "particular emphasis should be laid upon those cultural and leisure-time activities which lead to a richer, happier, healthier, and longer life."

For the first time in American history the Fair presents a vivid, complete picture of the expanding American life. The purpose that has inspired it all is "to foster universal peace and progress by building the world of tomorrow with the tools of today. The Fair is a prophecy, dropping hints of the future which will possibly arbitrate strife and unite all peoples."

Our prophecy is that in our school life there will also be a great future. Here, too, we shall find an ever-expanding world, a school in which the individual becomes the center and all things revolve around him. It is possible that architecture will improve our buildings, making them more serviceable, more comfortable, more livable, and more beautiful. It will be a school in which science and art, ever growing, will enrich the life of the student. This glimpse into the future tends to give a picture of the school-to-be, established solely to perfect the education of students.

CLASS SONG

*Dear Alma Mater we are parting
Bidding adieu to you
With friendships lasting, triumphs sounding
To you we'll all be true.
A star to guide us ever loyal
A crown to call our own
To bring success and happiness
To share with thee alone.*

Words by
Ada S. Hepner

Music by Miriam April

Chorus:

*So we'll honor the name of Bridgeton High
As we follow down the line
For our victory's won, our mission done
Hail to '39.*

*Thy precious memories linger with us
Of happy days spent here
We'll honor, love, respect, and hail thee
For our remaining years.
With tear-dimmed eyes we sing thy praises
Rejoicing ere we go
To follow always thy example
Our gratitude to show.*

ALMA MATER

*In the southern end of Jersey
There's a quaint old-fashioned town,
With its classic halls of learning
That have won it great renown.*

Words by
Mr. Harry C. Smalley

Music by
Mrs. Kate Schneider Ayars

Chorus:

*Alma Mater, Alma Mater
The school we love the best;
May thy colors ever lead us
And proudly wave from shore to shore
Then to thee a cheer we'll render,
Bridgeton High, forevermore,
Bridgeton High, forevermore.*

*On the field and in the classroom,
True thy sons will ever be,
That thy fame may stand unblemished
Through the years of history.*

*To thy name there will be glory,
When our task for thee is done
For Maroon and White has led us
In the contests that we've won.*

Miss Rebecca Glenn Robbins

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1939, dedicate the "Baconian" to Miss Rebecca Glenn Robbins, our adviser. Through her excellent cooperation and successful guidance, she has ever been a source of helpfulness to us.

Miss Robbins was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. She became a member of the faculty of Bridgeton High School in 1932. She now teaches bookkeeping and commercial law.

She has continued her advanced education at the Bessie V. Hicks School in Philadelphia. She has also taken graduate work at the Wharton School which is affiliated with the University of Pennsylvania. Miss Robbins has taken a great interest in the Chamber of Commerce and has done much toward its furtherance. She does a great deal of reading and likes outdoor sports.

Miss Robbins lives in Port Norris. All through our high school years she has always had the welfare of the class at heart. We feel that we are fortunate in having her as our adviser.

I've enjoyed knowing you - why not make you think of you? - Spot in woods but in minutes or something - catch on Remember your reception - fit now a nice out and reception - fit now a fine time - you all had Glenn Robbins

BRIDGETON HIGH SCHOOL

Bridgeton High School now stands on the site formerly occupied by the West Jersey Academy. The year 1922-'23 marks the beginning of the present high school. In that year a new addition to the West Jersey Academy, which had been purchased by the Board of Education, was made.

In the fall of 1923 the grades from ten to twelve, inclusive, were brought to the Academy building from the Bank Street High School. The enrollment consisted of 847 pupils and there were twenty-nine members on the faculty.

In 1929-'30 the old Academy building was torn down and the latest addition to the high school was made. Today our enrollment is 1,389 and sixty members are on the faculty, including special teachers.

ODE

We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea-breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams;
World-losers and world-forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams:
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

With wonderful deathless ditties
We build up the world's great cities,
And out of a fabulous story
We fashion an empire's glory:
One man with a dream, at pleasure,
Shall go forth and conquer a crown;
And three with a new song's measure
Can trample a kingdom down.

A breath of our inspiration
Is the life of each generation;
A wondrous thing of our dreaming
Unearthly, impossible seeming—
The soldier, the king, and the peasant
Are working together in one,
Till our dream shall become their present,
And their work in the world be done.

And therefore today is thrilling
With a past day's late fulfilling;
And the multitudes are enlisted
In the faith that their fathers resisted,
And, scorning the dream of tomorrow,
Are bringing to pass, as they may,
In the world, for its joy or its sorrow,
The dream that was scorned yesterday.

Great hail! we cry to the comers
From the dazzling unknown shore;
Bring us hither your sun and your summers,
And renew our world as of yore;
You shall teach us your song's new numbers,
And things that we dreamed not before:
Yea, in spite of a dreamer who slumbers,
And a singer who sings no more.

Selections from an "Ode" by Arthur O'Shaughnessy.

CLASS MOTTO—"For life lives only in success."

CLASS FLOWER—Red Rose.

Harry C. Smalley, Principal

Mr. Harry C. Smalley has been connected with Bridgeton High School for twenty years. He was first employed in December, 1918 as teacher of physics and chemistry. He next filled the position of assistant principal for three years, from 1924 to 1927, while Mr. Chester Robbins was principal.

Upon the promotion of Mr. Robbins to superintendency in 1927, Mr. Smalley was advanced to that of principal.

He has served in this capacity for twelve years and it may be rightfully said has been one devoted to duty with the welfare of the school and pupils always at heart.

1938 - '39

School Begins

September 7, 1938, marked the opening of the 1938-'39 school year. The total student enrollment was 1429. There were 282 seniors.

New Teachers

The students welcomed six new faculty members. They were: Miss Sarah Frances Wheaton in the science department, Miss Mary Ruhl and Mr. Alfred Trout in the commercial department, Miss Zelda Pineles in the English department, and Miss Winona Townsend in the physical education department. Later on, in November, Mr. Herbert L. Davis filled Mrs. Alma Husted's place in the commercial curriculum and Mr. Donald B. Corson succeeded Mrs. Kate Ashman Schneider in music.

Another unexpected change was that Miss Reba Beckett, efficient office clerk, had changed her name to Mrs. Sigafos.

New Classes

Sociology, a new class originated by Mr. Robert Rensch, took its place in the curriculum. Economic geography was a new subject in the commercial department.

The Echo Dance

The first dance was the result of a very successful Echo Campaign. It was held on September 30. The orchestra that encouraged many to dance was none other than Frankie Testa's.

Football Sidelights

In preparation for the Collingswood game, Mr. Maloney, the chief of the cheering crew, forsook his sophisticated manner, and during a rousing pep meeting in the auditorium became an enthusiastic school boy once more as he prophesied the forthcoming game with Collingswood on Saturday, October 22.

The Vineland game was held on November 19 during a seasonal downpour. Two B. H. S. lassies bravely stood ankle-deep in mud selling apple taffies.

The school also had a grand marching unit this year. It was composed of about one hundred girls. Each girl was dressed in the school colors and presented a very colorful picture when on the field.

Saturday night, November 12, almost every student of B. H. S. was present at the greatest snake dance of the year. It was held to celebrate the glorious victory over Millville.

The student body looks back upon the football season with no regrets.

Buckin' Broncho Busters' Brawl

The annual A. A. dance was very unique. It carried one's mind way out West where men are men and women are cowgirls. Every couple was dressed in Wild West garb and every one had a grand time. Yippee!

Spelling Bee

The pupils really discovered just who their best spellers were through a series of spelling bees, sponsored by the Ashley-McCormick store and broadcast over WSNJ. The contestants were chosen by elimination contests given by the English teachers. This contest was won in the senior class by Helen English with Theo Salmon a very close second.

NEW CLUBS

Forensic Society

In November two new clubs were started. One was the Forensic Society under the able direction of Miss Zelda Pineles. The aims and purposes of this club were: to further an interest in debating, to be a voice through which to discuss all matters of importance in school life, and to help students develop poise.

Home Economics Club

The other new clubs were organized by Mrs. Lavenia Mulford in connection with the work in the Domestic Science department. The Service Club consisted of junior girls. The aim of this club was "service to the school."

The senior girls, with the help of Mrs. Mulford, organized a Recreation Club. The aim of this club was to find different means of recreation that could be had without spending much money.

A. A. Council

The A. A. membership this year was rather large. Four hundred and seventy-six students were enrolled. The members and officers of the council were:

Marionette Show

Monday, October 10, the Art Department sponsored a marionette show by The Marionette Guild. The beloved story of "Huckleberry Finn" was presented at the matinee. The petite doll-like "Huck Finn" amused many. In the evening "The Prince and the Pauper" was viewed along with other short subjects. The marionettes were very life-like.

Christmas Activities

The Christmas program in the auditorium was very graciously provided by the junior division of the school. During the vacation an alumni dance was held. Tuesday, December 27, the class of '39 gave a dance for the former members of any class of B. H. S. Frankie Testa's orchestra provided the music. Miss Glenn Robbins, the senior class adviser, was in charge of the dance.

D. A. R. Award

Rebecca Shoemaker, a popular and prominent senior, was chosen by the girls in her class as the best citizen to represent the school in the D. A. R. Convention in Trenton. She was chosen for having these traits: dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism. She will compete with other New Jersey high school girls to determine which one will represent the state at Washington in the annual D. A. R. pilgrimage. This contest was sponsored by the local chapter.

Echo Contest

The Echo sponsored a popularity contest on February 28. The auditorium was filled as every one was eager to see Miss B. H. S. crowned. The returns of the contest were as follows:

Voice Tests

There was quite a fuss among the seniors when it came time to have their voices tested. Many seemed quite reluctant to exhibit their vocal talents. Every senior was rather shy and insisted on being alone when tested. However, the ordeal finally was over and Mrs. Helen Balbirnie stated that she really found quite a few good singers.

Close of School

The social activities of the school year closed with the annual Student Council party. This was held Monday, June 12, and many came to enjoy the last dance of the year.

School officially closed on June 16, 1939, for seniors on June 14. The senior class bid a fond farewell to the halls that had sheltered them for four grand years.

Commencement

The school board this year ruled that the graduation exercises would be held outside on the Broad Street side of the building. The class also voted that they would wear caps and gowns.

Echo Staff

On September 7, nine confident debonair seniors, veterans of the Echo Staff of '38, and fifteen unassuming juniors and seniors, assembled with Miss Doris Hann and discussed plans for the year.

During the next few weeks the first issue of the "mouthpiece of Bridgeton High" was planned by the veterans while the newcomers, under Mrs. Leona Meyers' able supervision, struggled with the fundamentals of journalism—headlines, leads, editorials, etc. Finally, when the pages were made up, proof read, and the type set, the presses started rolling and on Tuesday, October 11 the initial issue went on sale.

In September the social season opened in the softly lighted boys' gym as the Echo staged its greatest triumph of the year—the first Echo Dance.

Art Service Staff

The Art Service Staff has always aimed to help and serve school and community organizations in all art fields. Much extra time is willingly spent on the many different types of work which is requested.

These students meet weekly and they never know what unusual type of work may be waiting for them. They have designed and printed many program covers, menu cards, and special posters and it is they who provide the many attractive miscellaneous art objects we see around our school.

Art Representatives

Each Art Representative was elected by his fellow art students and serves as president of his class.

This group has been in existence two years and has had an active influence toward developing in our school good taste in the arts. Their purpose is to improve the school by using their knowledge of art.

This year they have continued to hang a fine painting each month in the auditorium where all can enjoy its beauty, and they have sponsored good entertainment. They have arranged a series of movies on the various arts. In addition they have attended exhibitions and have helped other art students to visit Philadelphia museums, studios, and other places which might be of interest.

Home Economics Clubs

Two clubs were formed in the Home Economics Department this year. One is the Service Club, consisting of junior girls and the other, the Time Killers' Club, consisting of senior girls.

The purpose of the Service Club is to be of service to the entire school. The Senior Time Killers have as their purpose the study of wholesome recreational activities.

The junior girls improved the dining room by purchasing new lamp shades and table covers. Apple taffies were made and sold to raise money for this. They did this because they wished to leave something worth while as a memento of their class. Committees were also appointed to make curtains for the dining room and to make jelly for the Red Cross.

Bank Club

The Banking Club of Bridgeton High School is a student organization formed to take care of the banking throughout all the public schools in Bridgeton.

The club works in cooperation with the Cumberland National Bank in making this activity possible. The members visit the grammar schools one day each week and receive the deposits. In the high school, the bank is operated in the cafeteria during each lunch period.

The system used is similar to that of the Christmas Club Savings. A variety of books of different denominations is used to care for the various range in deposits.

The Banking Club, as originally organized, used three students to carry on the work. Today, because of the tremendous increase, approximately forty students are needed.

* * * *

The Bridgeton High School orchestra is an ensemble of advanced ability, meeting twice each week for the purpose of enjoying good music through group participation and by making the acquaintance of the works of famous composers.

At each meeting there is a definite attempt to present some new material for study and analysis. This music is played to develop the necessary technique of each instrumentalist and to learn of the atmosphere in which the composer conceived the work. Familiar numbers are also played so that the students can always be in contact with music that is being played and for the mere enjoyment of playing.

In the spring, this group presented its annual concert for the general interest of the public and of the music lovers and friends of the high school.

Glee Club

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Helen Balbirnie, the Glee Club has had a most interesting and active year.

There were many newcomers to the club this year, making a grand total of forty-three members. The club met second and fifth periods every Wednesday and Friday.

Following the custom of the previous year, the girls sang Christmas carols in the halls before the vacation.

In the spring, the club presented its annual concert. This program of classical and popular music was heard and enjoyed by many music lovers of Bridgeton.

Latin Club

The purpose of the Latin Club is to promote in the school a greater interest in Latin. By learning more of Roman customs, history, and social life, the students gain a deeper appreciation of Roman culture.

The program of each meeting of this organization is in charge of a different class. Some of the meetings this year were spent in singing Latin translations of English songs. At other meetings, plays depicting Roman life were presented. Latin games were another feature of the club meetings.

Red Cross Council

The Red Cross Council consists of one representative from each homeroom and a member from each of the various clubs. Through the council's efforts, almost every school in the rural districts has been enrolled in the Red Cross.

Holiday cheer was brought into thirty-eight needy homes via baskets filled with Thanksgiving delicacies.

Included in the Christmas project was the refinishing of used toys for distribution to deserving children.

A doll, outfitted in typical American style, and equipped with a complete wardrobe in a trunk has been completed and will be exchanged for a doll of some foreign country.

It has been our honor to be represented at the State Convention held in Newark. Mary Shoemaker, Jane Connelly, and Bebe Smashey were appointed to attend this convention.

Motto: I serve.

Student Council

The Student Council is the governing body of the school. It holds meetings weekly under the supervision of Mr. Harry C. Smalley, the adviser. These meetings are held to discuss problems which will benefit the school.

The members were responsible for the school's contributions to the hospital on Donation Day. Council members working with the Junior Red Cross helped in the preparation of thirty-eight baskets of food for needy families at Thanksgiving.

After due consideration of the corridor traffic problem at dismissal time, the members decided to ask for two dismissals. Tuition pupils are dismissed first one week and town pupils, the next. This plan has helped the situation so much that it is now the accepted way.

It is the hope of the Council that a school flag can be designed and secured before the year is over. A committee is now busy in the preparation of the several mottoes which are to be presented to the student body for final selection. The motto thus selected will be the school motto and will be placed on the flag.

The members are eager to learn of things which they can do to be of service to those whom they represent.

Forensic Society

The Forensic Society is a new club this year. Its director is Miss Zelda Pineles, one of the new faculty members. The aims and purposes of this club are as follows: to further an interest in debating, to be a voice through which to discuss all matters of importance in school life, and to help students develop poise.

To become a member of the Forensic Society, the pupil has to prepare a two-minute talk on the subject "The Abolishment of Homework In the School." During the year several debates on various subjects were held within the club meetings.

The most important debate held during the year was the one in assembly. This debate was very humorous and amused every assembly.

The officers of the Forensic society are as follows:

President	James Reynolds
Vice President	Clarence Fisher
Secretary	Theo Salmon
Treasurer	Thomas Meyers

Adviser: Miss Zelda Pineles

Dramatics Club

The Dramatics Club, with its membership of about one hundred, had a successful year from various viewpoints.

At the first meeting, the president mentioned several goals for the year: first, to buy and present to the school, a new cyclorama for the stage; second, to produce two plays, a modern comedy and a costume play; third, to decide on a pin for the club; fourth, to see some stage plays; fifth, to maintain the enthusiastic interest in movies and plays which has been evidenced since the club re-organized last year.

Most of these have been realized: The cyclorama was purchased in January, and "Girl-Shy" and "Little Women" were presented. Because of the size of the club and the lack of an adequate place to meet, it was necessary to forego regular meetings.

CREED OF FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

I believe in the future of farming, with a faith born not of words but of deeds.

I believe that to live and work on a good farm is pleasant as well as challenging.

I believe in leadership for ourselves and respect for others. I believe in my own ability to work efficiently and think clearly and in the ability of organized farmers to serve our own and the public interests in marketing the products of our soil.

I believe in less dependence on begging and more power in bargaining; in the life abundant and enough honest wealth to help make it so—for others as well as for myself; in less need for charity and more of it when needed.

I believe that rural America can and will hold true to the best traditions in our national life and that I can exert an influence in my home and community which will stand solid for my part in that inspiring task.

1938 Gridders Prove to Be Powerful

Coach Lowden, this year, assembled a fast and smooth combination whose powers will long be remembered. The team won four games, tied three and lost three. Football is coming into its own with more enthusiasm being shown each year.

Salem—Romanick, Captain
Bridgeton 44, Salem 0

The virile eleven started the season by stampeding the Salem team. Hard blocking and vicious tackling were the main features of the game. Hines scored three touchdowns to lead the onslaught.

Haddonfield—Gibe, Captain
Bridgeton 0, Haddonfield 7

After battling to a scoreless first half, Haddonfield came back strong to score early in the third period. This proved to be the winning margin. A highlight of the game was Gibe's sixty-yard touchdown run which was called back because of an infraction of a rule.

Ocean City—Padgett, Captain
Bridgeton 19, Ocean City 0

Spoltore's unsurpassable receiving ability reached its highest peak when he scored on three of Hine's accurate passes. The only other score was made when Baldy Ceuleers drop-kicked an extra point.

Glassboro—Cole, Captain
Bridgeton 0, Glassboro 0

Unfortunately for us, we had an epidemic of injuries which eliminated Ceuleers, Spoltore, Hetteroth, Earnest and Kiger from taking part during most of the game. This game will be remembered as our "Comedy of Errors." However, our team snapped out of this scoreless "offset" to play good ball the rest of the season.

Collingswood—Ceuleers, Captain
Bridgeton 6, Colls 26

Bridgeton encountered the mighty Colls next and played an excellent game of headsup football. Two long aeriels to Spoltore in the second quarter resulted in a touchdown for Bridgeton. This was the first time the Coll's goal line had been crossed this year. The score was then tie, but the opponents came back strong and scored three more times.

Gloucester—Spoltore, Captain
Bridgeton 0, Gloucester 0

On a muddy field, Gloucester held the Bulldogs to a scoreless tie. Both teams were in scoring territory but failed to reach the payoff dirt.

Paulsboro—Ceuleers, Captain

Bridgeton 12, Paulsboro 0

In this game, the Bridgeton running attack started clicking. Frank Gibe, the alert signal caller, fell on a fumble for the first score. In the third period with beautiful blocking, Hines got off on a spectacular run of thirty-eight yards for the final six points. Although Bridgeton scored only twice, Paulsboro was outclassed by far.

Millville—Gibe, Captain

Bridgeton 12, Millville 0

With a large crowd of followers, the Bridgeton Bulldogs journeyed across the pike and defeated a Millville team that was undefeated to date. Hines and Huber scored against the county rivals. Millville never threatened, mainly because of the superb playing of Baldy Ceuleers, who was in the opponent's back-field all afternoon and a splendid defense against Millville's forward pass attack. The game featured hard running backs for Bridgeton and deadly tackling.

Vineland—Spoltore, Captain

Bridgeton 0, Vineland 6

Then came the highly-rated Vineland eleven on their way to their second straight South Jersey Group-Four Championship. Vineland scored in the first five minutes of play for the only score of the game. In the last quarter, Bridgeton started clicking to make four consecutive first downs, placing the ball on the four-yard line. There a penalty halted the team's touchdown march and saved Vineland from certain tie and possible defeat.

Audubon—Ceuleers, Captain

Bridgeton 7, Audubon 7

On Thanksgiving morning the B. H. S. team traveled to Audubon to play their annual Turkey Day game. They scored early in the first period and threatened to score again, but the Audubon gridders held firmly on their one-foot line. Then on an intercepted pass and a fumble, Audubon scored, kicked the extra point, and tied the game. The bitter cold which prevailed greatly handicapped both teams.

Although several players are lost to the team by graduation this year, the prospects for a victorious season next year are very encouraging.

Hockey

The last two games of the season which were played with Haddon Heights and Merchantville indicated the progress which had been made by the girls during the season. The results of these games left the girls with a great deal of hope for next year.

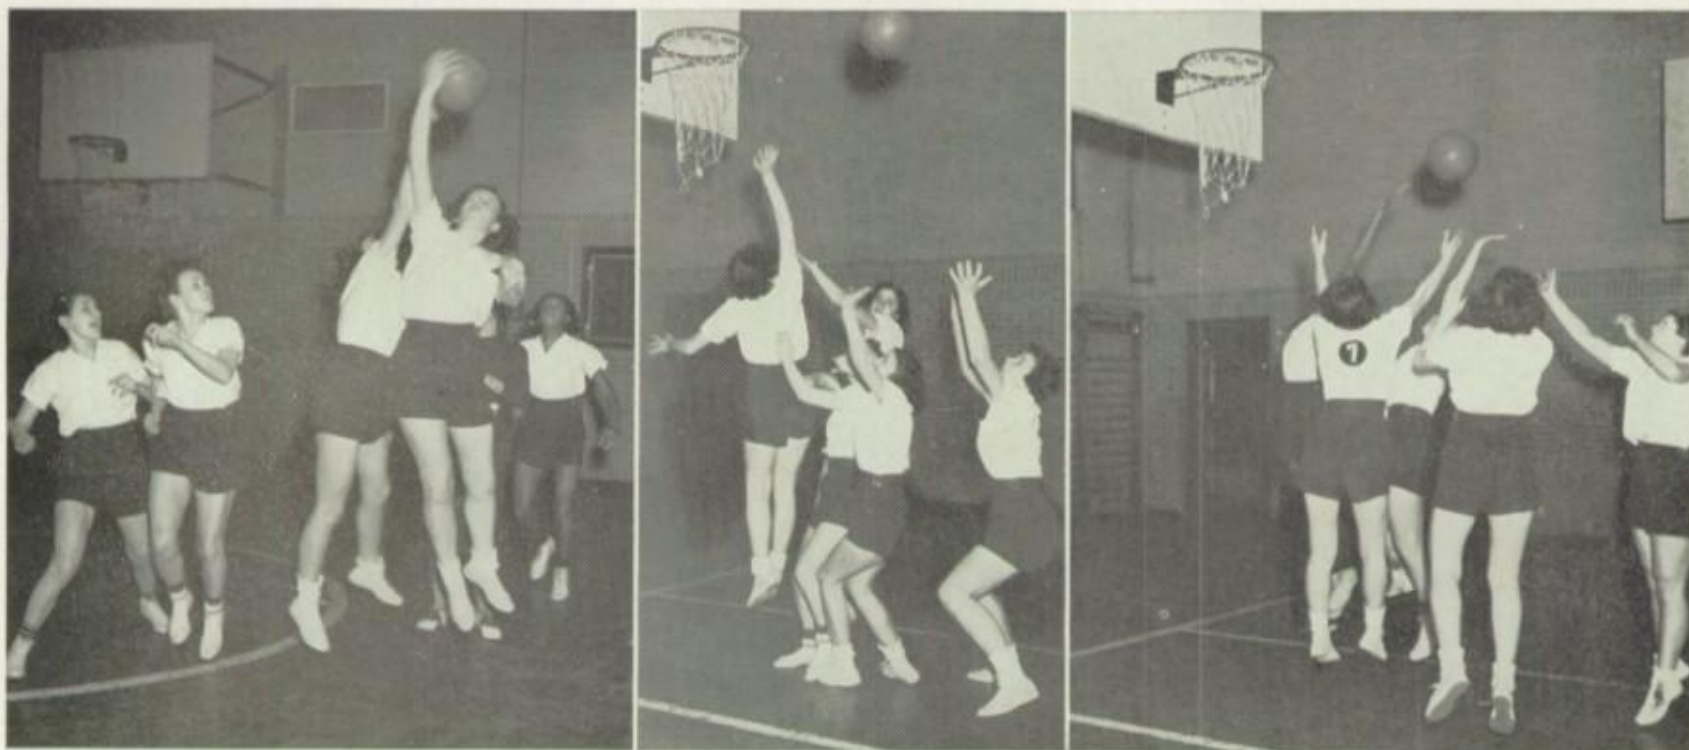

The following were among the outstanding players: Doris Cossaboon, Captain; Harriet Elmer, Dorothy Du Bois, Mary Lippincott, Ruth Maier, Vivian Ridout; Betsy Uber, goalie. Seven letter girls will be graduated.

A word of commendation should be given Miss Ethlyn Davis, coach, and Miss Winona Townsend, assistant coach, for their fine instruction and cooperation with the team. Doris Cossaboon, Captain, is also to be commended for her leadership during the season.

In all, Bridgeton won two games, lost five, and tied one. She finished the season in fifth place in the league.

There were five girls representing our school on the all-South Jersey Scholastic Hockey Team. This is the greatest number Bridgeton has ever had and speaks very well for the playing ability of the girls. They were: Betsy Uber, goalie; Dottie Du Bois, fullback; Captain Doris Cossaboon, half-back; Ruth Maier, forward line; and Harriet Elmer, fullback.

Girls' Basketball

The girls' basketball team, led by Mildred DeMaris as captain, finished the season with four wins and six losses. This was an improvement over last year.

The first two league games of the season were with Vineland and Haddon Heights with a loss and a victory respectively.

Woodbury presented to us on our floor the fastest moving team in the league. The "Colls" also showed a swift team. Both of these games were losses.

We met Haddonfield on our home floor, gaining another victory.

In the last half of the season, the girls captured two more victories.

"Kitty" Morris, a sophomore, was the highest scorer of the season, making sixty-five points. "Happy" Elmer was runner-up.

This season proved to be successful as far as experience is concerned, and there is much hope for a brilliant season next year.

Team Places Second in League

Bridgeton High's basketeers of 1939 have completed another season of glorious basketball for their Alma Mater. With John Spoltore receiving second highest honors in the Camden Suburban League, and with all the other varsity men starring together; the efficient coach, Bill Maloney, has probably produced the best team ever to represent Bridgeton High in basketball.

The following is a summary of the season:

The team won second place in the Camden Suburban League and was victorious in 16 out of the entire 24 games played.

B. H. S. trounced Gloucester in the opener, 23 to 8.

Alumni bowed to Bulldogs, 25 to 28.

Bridgeton defeated Glassboro, 46 to 22.

Salesianum handed Bridgeton their first defeat, 33 to 23.

The Maloney men sailed over Haddon Heights, 32 to 21.

With a score of 21 to 16, B. H. S. gave the Colls their only setback in the Camden Suburban League.

Audubon inflicted the first league defeat by a score of 17 to 23.

Bulldogs swamped Haddonfield, 37 to 13.

County series opened with Millville victorious over Bulldogs by 18 to 15.

Woodrow Wilson downed Bridgeton High with a 32 to 30 decision.

The Maroon and White found easy going at Woodbury, 42 to 28.

By a score of 29 to 23, Vineland was defeated by the B. H. S. passers.

Haddon Heights afforded another easy victory, 35 to 18.

Gloucester triumphed, 25 to 21.

B. H. S. lost a 25 to 27 thriller to Collingswood.

The Maroon and White overpowered Audubon, 28 to 18.

A 29 to 28 victory was eked out at Ocean City.

A 46 to 27 defeat for Haddonfield.

Maroon and White passers got revenge by taking a 33 to 25 decision from Millville.

Woodrow Wilson was again victorious, 42 to 28.

Woodbury again went down, 29 to 20.

With 33 to 32 score, the Bulldogs beat Vineland to tie Millville for County Championship.

In the first round of the state tournament, Bridgeton defeated the powerful Camden High team, 22 to 20.

With a 21 to 20 decision, Atlantic City eliminated Bridgeton in semi-finals of championship playoff.

TRACK

Woodrow Romanik, captain of last year's team and South Jersey record holder for the javelin throw, is still in school, but is ineligible to participate in track this spring because of the age limit. The captain this year will probably be either Robert Moore or Anthony Showell, who are the only letter men eligible for track.

In our track system there is a condition that is not present in most of our other sports. The success of track is greatly lessened by the conflicting activities of tennis, spring football, and baseball. Many potential stars may be putting all their time in some other sport when they could be winning fame for the track team.

BASEBALL

With nearly an entire team for the current baseball season, Coach Rex Bowen can look forward to a much brighter season this spring than last. With no alternative last year but to prepare for this season and for the next, he wisely concentrated on preparation for the future. With an experienced pitching staff consisting of Harry Burt, who won more than passing recognition last year as a freshman "hurler;" Matt Bogush, the Carmel Ace; Steve Huber, George Pelis, and Franklin Gas-kill; and with such veterans as Frank Gibe, Matt Haggerty, George Ceuleers, Allister MacKenzie, Bob Gaunt, and Albie Gentile, the prospects for a winning team are very good. Other prominent contenders for positions in the "nine" are Art Wulderk, Jimmie Gubbine, Bill Loll, and John Bitters.

The coaches have been fortunate in this season's schedule arrangement. Its variety and completeness will afford a much greater opportunity for the boys than any schedule has in previous years.

The ladder as it stands at the beginning of the 1939 season:

1. Minnie Bolnick
2. Ruth Maier
3. Dora Joyce
4. Mildred Halbruegge
5. Harriet Elmer
6. Ruth Sheeler
7. Rebecca Shoemaker
8. Jane Connelly
9. Mary Shoemaker
10. Florence Wurts
11. Doris Casarow
12. Sylvia Kane
13. Bette Baldwin
14. Dorothy Johnson
15. Ann Johnson

Boys' Tennis

For the tennis season of 1939, Bridgeton High's prospects are more promising than any in its court history. This is due to the fact that four out of last year's six varsity players remain on the team. The netmen finished the '38 season in second place in the South Jersey Interscholastic League, and with such a bright outlook they are justified in having high hopes for the championship this year. With the veterans, Ross Lieb, Kirby Lawson, Tommy Newton, Billy Fisher, and such promising prospects as Martin Cotler, Chester Peterson, Richard Emerson and Donald Peck, Coach Behling will undoubtedly have a team that the school will be proud of.

Beginning this year the South Jersey Interscholastic Tennis League has been divided into an Upper South Jersey and a Lower South Jersey League. The winners of each division will have a play-off to decide the league championship. The teams from Bridgeton, Audubon, Glassboro, Pitman, Woodbury and Paulsboro constitute the lower league and those from Camden, Collingswood, Haddonfield, Moorestown, Pemberton, Woodrow Wilson, and Palmyra make up the upper league.

This year's playoff is scheduled for May 22. On May 24 an individual play-off will be staged to determine the best player in the league.

Girls' Tennis

The prospects for the season of 1939 are excellent, for Bridgeton finished last year in first place, capturing the West Jersey High School Tennis League championship and trophy. This was the first League Championship ever won by Bridgeton High School.

Harriet Elmer and Isabelle Ceuleers were undefeated players.

If the girls play as well as they did last season, Bridgeton High School may look forward to more success in the coming tournament.

The Bridgeton High Time Capsule

At the New York World's Fair of 1939 there is a Time Capsule. This will contain various articles which are characteristic of our present age. It will be buried in the ground on the site of the fair and is to be opened in the year A. D. 6939. Dr. Albert Einstein has included a letter to posterity in which he has summed up the modern age.

Since the theme of the '39 Baconian is the New York World's Fair, we too shall plan a Time Capsule. In this way we hope to give something of the fads and fashions and happenings of the days we spent in high school.

Let's throw into our capsule:

Those flashy shirts that caused so much eye-strain.
(The socks and ties ran a close second.)

All the dinky miniatures on those charm bracelets.

Our jazzed-up baby tunes.
(Nursery rimes to you.)

The riot the piled-up-hair caused.

Those history quizzes Mr. Rensch produced almost every day.

Those short skirts that displayed such a variety of knees.

The jitterbugs, hep-cats, alligators, etc.

The kerchiefs the girls wore to keep their ears warm (but would they admit it?)

All the heart-aches Richard Greene aroused.

The dreamy looks the boys got at the thoughts of Hedy LaMarr.

Those swingy Goodman recordings at Ben's.

All the fun at that snake-dance.

The awful jitterbug jackets.

Those crepe sole shoes (need we say more?)

Those swell fixins at the Broncho Busters' Brawl.

The Flat Foot Floogies.

All the test-tubes we broke in lab. (Howsa 'bout it, Becky?)

Carl Kiger's classy jallope.

Every last text-book (did I hear applause?)

The football from the Bridgeton-Millville game.

A cheer for the snappy form of the cheer leaders.

The brief forms of shorthand for future generations to worry about.

That black pencil that made, overnight, those mustachios.

Humor

Play by Play Description of the Imaginary Trip to the World's Fair made by the Class of 1939, illustrated by television and explained by "Jeff."

All aboo-ar-d! All aboard!! shouts Webster Lodge, conductor, as the motors of the Bridgeton High Special begin to churn. Slowly the wheels start to turn and, the train begins to move out of the South Avenue Station, carrying the Senior Class of '39 on a trip to the New York World's Fair. But wait! Pounding down the tracks comes John Spoltore, the "Best Athlete of B. H. S.," late as usual. Laura Lee Wynn and Miss Edna Loew haul him into the observation car and give him a piece of cocoanut cake for his mighty effort.

The train is now speeding on its way and we are approaching Elmer. Of course John Poland has to make that age-old crack about which side of the street is Elmer but Freda Brewington soon squelches him. She thinks a lot of Elmer and is anxiously waiting for Ralph Woolman to clamber aboard, and clamber he does along with the rest of the Elmer seniors.

Well, we are off for good with no more stops until we reach New York. To pass the time away "Perfect Specimen" Frank Gibe is called upon to lecture on "Why We Should Travel With Suitcases or Should We." He closed his speech with a blush and, "Personally, I don't think we should travel," whereupon Leonard Carman and Doris Cossaboon leap to the front with a, "Yea, Gibie" and the cheers resound from the cow-catcher to the taillights.

Horrors! Margaret Carll has a bad case of the giggles and Audrey Petitt, while trying to revive her, catches them now and they're rolling in the aisles. Serena Cuff's caught it too and has joined them on the floor. Call Naomi Greene quick. She'll fix them up in a jiffy with all the clinic duty she's had. Hm! There's the cause of it. Robert Davis, Walter Husted, and David Elwell are sitting over there with meek and innocent looks on their faces.

"First, second, and last call for dinner with a free talk on (How Our Country Expanded Romantically) by Miss Alexander and Helen Garrison thrown in," announces Howard Cuff with a broad smile on his face. There is a mad rush for the dining car, not at all befitting dignified seniors, but which resembles the "locker rush" we used to have in school before the new regulations came in. Did I say every one rushed? Some one will have to go back and tear Reuben Thompson and Eleanor Hughes away from their seat by the window. They seem very interested in the scenery or something.

We have finished our delicious repast and are now waiting for our after-dinner-speeches. A sudden hush falls on the crowd as Charles Sutterly arises, rolls his napkin into a ball, takes a careful aim for the waste basket, and tosses!!! Wonder of wonders, he made it. Daily practice with his lunch bag sixth period has helped him.

Miss Alexander rises, but before she can say a word, Mahlon Pfeffer and Albert Adams get into a violent argument with her as to whether the West expanded romantically or romance expanded westwardly. Robert Woodruff and 1+'s iron things out and since everyone has fallen asleep, I will too.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We wish to express our appreciation to Miss Rebecca Glenn Robbins, for the manner in which she has so capably handled the business end of our yearbook. It is in this same manner that she has conducted all of our class activities.

We wish to thank Mrs. Marjory Rensch for her excellent advice and interest in the art work of the yearbook.

We also wish to thank Mr. Smalley for his fine cooperation.

To Mrs. Sigafoo, Mrs. McCormick, and Miss Bell, goes our extreme appreciation for the assistance that they so cheerfully rendered in the office.

The club and activity advisers and all other faculty members have always been willing to cooperate when called upon.

Those seniors who solicited names for "Friends of the Class" and those who worked so faithfully as subscription representatives are to be greatly commended.

We greatly appreciate Mr. Robert Howell's assistance in our subscription campaign. Many thanks to him for taking his time to help boost our Baconian.

To our advertisers and subscribers:

We extend our sincere appreciation for your cooperation which helped make possible this edition of "The Baconian."

We wish to thank everyone, who, in any way, assisted in the completion of our annual.

THANK YOU, MRS. MEYERS

The Baconian Staff wishes to express its sincere appreciation for all that Mrs. Leona Meyers has done toward the completion of the annual.

To Ruth,

I hope you are Miss B. H. S. for

To a very sweet girl, with a swell personality the best of everything to you.

Love Julia Linkinsbaugh '88

The best of everything to you Ruth, I think you are just about it. I still don't understand why you don't believe me, but that's the way with you girls. I hope to see a lot of you next year. And don't forget what we are going to do together. Alfred Lupton '90

To Ruth:

A swell girl I just met while decorating the gym. Wasn't it fun? Always count on me as a friend.
in the Smith.

Ruth

Do you think you'll ever graduate? Well I don't think you will if you don't quit redeyeing. If you were as dumb in English as you are in algebra you'd never graduate. Well I'll have to sign off. I was only kidding about you being dumb. Jack Blandin

"Softie",

Lots of happiness to you in the future. Don't ever let Sellers down.

Ruth: May everyone of your friends have as good a person and physique and what a world this would be. Alice Lyons "80"

In ten years from now I hope to see you in the Philadelphia Sympathy.
[I have sympathy for anyone who take notice of spells has to play with them, and I know it won't be long before you will hit the big time if you keep up the good work.]

Walt Frank

Dear "Tenny"

Last year it was Latin this year it's Physics. I wonder what it'll be next year. Chemistry probably. Luck + Success to you in all you attempt.

a friend,
mgt. Shimp.

Stick to your Math and leave sciences alone
I hurt me a pain in one's neck. Make I'm not a Judge but I'd bet Miss B.H.S is your's next year. Have you fun now cause your bread and butter days will soon be ended.

Rich. 78

Autographs

Lots of luck and success to you Ruth. You're a swell girl.
Remember all the fun in our classes and I hope you're in my classes next year too.

Marian Shea

Thanks to an able assistant in the clinic + I hope she want to work here next year.

Harriet F. Tice.

Dear Ruth,

I don't think I'll ever forget a lovely girl like you. Don't ever forget our physics class. It would be something if you forgot.
I know I couldn't. I'm looking forward to our last year together.

Yours ever,

Josephine Polizzi

I would appreciate it greatly if I could be honored with your most excellent friendship in the many years to come. It would be a pleasure to me to have it so - a look forward to pleasure in fact, if I may say so. Lovingly yours,
Miss Howell.

Autographs

Dear Ruth,

To my best friend, pal, sweetheart, friend, and companion, to the sweetest girl & child of heaven, to the most faithful, honest, and true friend of all, my love & love & love. (What a beginning!) Shall I ever forget our wonderful, glorious, stupendous good times together? Never! Shall I ever forget you? Never! Will you ever forget me? I hope not. I think you are the sweetest, sweetest, most beautiful girl in the Junior Class, in fact, the whole school, if not the world. (Goodness!
all that from me?) Don't forget our wonderful Christian fellowship together, our different conferences, and everything. Remember Ocean City, remember Quarryville, remember me, remember the "little little fishes", remember this, remember that. (Such nonsense.) Don't ever stop being as non-sensical as you are. It's one of your good traits. In fact, all of you is made up of good traits. I needn't say take care of the boys because I know you won't have to.
They'll come to you & keep out of trouble. (Silly isn't it?) May you never get as simple as I have.
Now don't get stuck up & sophisticated because of what I have said or that would ruin all. I know you won't though. You're not the kind that lets things go to their heads; but are more sensible & I might say, even more sensible than I am.
I'll try not to be so crude, as you say, & try to learn good manners & maybe I can be something like you. Just think of the grand good times we'll have this summer! What fun we'll have! For your sake, I hope everything turns out hunkydory or ookie-dokie. Still, my pet, I shall sign off with this in mind - I'll never find a nicer, truer, kinder, more thoughtful friend than you. So, my best friend & standby, Loads & loads of love & kisses & everything. "Best"

This Bank

—stands at the heart of the business life of this community.

EVERY industrial and commercial activity, every public or private financial transaction occurring in this community creates impulses that pass in one form or another through a bank.

They give rise to deposits of money, cashing of checks, bills of exchange to finance trade, distribution of payrolls, payment of bills, remittances of funds, accumulation of savings, borrowing of money. These are indispensable activities by which people carry forward their financial affairs.

Banks everywhere facilitate and weave into a properly related whole thousands of these separate transactions occurring daily throughout the country. Modern economic society and progress would be impossible without these banking functions.

In a sense that is true of no other form of enterprise, each bank belongs to—and is an essential part of—the whole business life of its community.

you are a very pretty girl with a charming personality and a girl who every one loves. Johnny
I hope you get the boy of dreams you know who I mean. I'm glad my brother took such a sweet girl to the reception. I think maybe he is too. maybe if he was coming back next year he would take you again. Well lots of luck with your dear-dear men. Love to a sweet girl.
